

Rachel Meystedt

From: Rachel Meystedt
Sent: Friday, October 04, 2019 4:02 PM
To: Amy Salladay
Cc: Duane Martin
Subject: RE: Carla London v. Traci Wilson-Kleekamp

Hi Amy,

I appreciate you taking that conflict into consideration when requesting the continuance.

I didn't mean to give you the impression we weren't going to provide the documentation voluntarily. I just needed to discuss your request with my client before I agreed to provide it to you. We were able to discuss that request this afternoon, and we'll send the documentation to you next week.

We're also in agreement to mediate this matter. We can work out the details of that next week as well, if that works for you. We still need to discuss mediator options with Mrs. London.

If you need anything else on our end in the meantime, please let us know.

Thanks,
Rachel

Rachel Meystedt
Attorney
2401 Bernadette Drive, Suite 117
Columbia, Missouri 65203
Office: (573) 777-9645
Fax: (573) 777-9648
www.edcounsel.law

Columbia, Missouri | Independence, Missouri | Lake St. Louis, Missouri | Springfield, Missouri

Email Confidentiality Notice: The information contained in this transmission is confidential, proprietary or privileged and may be subject to protection under the law, or may be protected by attorney-client privilege. The message is intended for the sole use of the individual or entity to whom it is addressed. If you are not the intended recipient, you are notified that any use, distribution or copying of the message is strictly prohibited and may subject you to criminal or civil penalties. If you received this transmission in error, please contact the sender immediately by replying to this email and delete the material from any computer.

From: Amy Salladay [mailto:amy@columbiafamilylawgroup.com]
Sent: Friday, October 04, 2019 1:35 PM
To: Rachel Meystedt <rmeystedt@edcounsel.law>
Cc: Duane Martin <dmartin@edcounsel.law>
Subject: Re: Carla London v. Traci Wilson-Kleekamp

Rachel,

I will see what dates the judge has available keeping this information in mind. If you aren't going to agree to voluntarily produce the documentation that you have that you claim shows that Ms. Kleekamp initiated contact with Ms. London's daughter then we have a problem. The documents which are attached to Ms. London's petition only show that her daughter accessed a public document; not that Ms. Kleekamp emailed her anything. That should be of concern for everyone.

Amy

On Fri, Oct 4, 2019 at 1:05 PM Rachel Meystedt <rmeystedt@edcounsel.law> wrote:

Amy,

One small change – we have a conflict on Monday the 21st. Would you be willing to request that the judge push this another week, to be set at 9am on Monday, October 28? Ms. London will be out of town on the 21st because of a work engagement.

Thanks,

Rachel

Rachel Meystedt

Attorney

2401 Bernadette Drive, Suite 117

Columbia, Missouri 65203

Office: (573) 777-9645

Fax: (573) 777-9648

www.edcounsel.law

Columbia, Missouri | Independence, Missouri | Lake St. Louis, Missouri | Springfield, Missouri

Email Confidentiality Notice: The information contained in this transmission is confidential, proprietary or privileged and may be subject to protection under the law, or may be protected by attorney-client privilege. The message is intended for the sole use of the individual or entity to whom it is addressed. If you are not the intended recipient, you are notified that any use, distribution or copying of the message is strictly prohibited and may subject you to criminal or civil penalties. If you received this transmission in error, please contact the sender immediately by replying to this email and delete the material from any computer.

From: Amy Salladay [mailto:amy@columbiafamilylawgroup.com]

Sent: Friday, October 04, 2019 9:00 AM

To: Rachel Meystedt <rmeystedt@edcounsel.law>

Subject: Carla London v. Traci Wilson-Kleekamp

Rachel,

We agreed to pass this to October 21 at 9am. If that date turns out to not be available for the judge I will let you know Monday afternoon what date the judge did continue this matter to. Please let me know where things stand after your conversation with Ms. London. Thanks

Amy